

House to House

Review/ Connect

Definition

- They met together beyond their times of collective worship in the temple
- Sharing a meal was both a mark and a seal of friendship
- Home was a place of sincerity
- Home was a place of rejoicing

Acts 2:46 “And they continued daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart”.

Question

What were (and still can be) the advantages of meeting “house to house”?

Implications

- We must take the faith home with us
- We should bring home with us when we come for worship
- We must find creative ways to find the “home” experience
- What binds a person to the church is not programs, it is relationships

Question

What are the advantages of “home environment” for ministry?

What are you going to do

- How can I use my home for the Lord's purposes?
- How can I make others feel at home in our congregation?
- How can we make sure there is no spiritual difference between home and church?
- How can sincerity be insured?
- Where can we start?

Question

In what ways can we use our "outside of the church" venues for the work of Christ?

Live it Out:

Take time this week in prayer asking the above questions under the "what are you going to do" section to see how you can serve The Body of Christ.