

5 Questions to Discover God's Will

Will it Help or Hurt Others? (1 Corinthians 10:23-24)

Ice Breaker: What is the strangest food you've ever eaten?

1. How can we prevent ourselves from being a stumbling block to others?
2. It's clear that God wants us to put others first, but is it wrong for us to put ourselves first sometimes?
3. What if, in order to put others first, it causes us trouble or unhappiness? Do we still need to abide by the rule of putting them first?
4. Christianity is often considered judgmental and restrictive. What does it look like to live life freely and follow Jesus?

Bottom line: In order to truly follow God's will for our lives, we must learn to lay our own needs aside and focus on the well-being of others both spiritually and physically.
